Superintendent's Message

To the Student Body:

Man's most treasured possession is his friends. I consider the students of Roosevelt Schools as my very best friends. To you Students, the following poem by an unknown author well expresses my feeling:

My friends are little lamps to me,
Their radiance warms and cheers my ways,
And all my pathway, dark and lone,
Is brightened by their rays.

I try to keep them bright by faith,
And never let them dim with doubt
For every time I lose a friend
A little lamp goes out.

May God's richest blessings fall upon each of you is my prayer.

Very sincerely,

Marvin Williams

1954 Seniors Class Prophecy

We have looked into the future. We can see that in ten years:

Larry Anderson is now farming in the Acuff Community. His wife, Rosene, is slopping his herd of Poland-China hogs. Their children, Nig, Renig and Rosenette, are handsome and precocious.

Joe Bert Andrews is now a big shot contractor and has just finished Joe's Drive-In at Midway.

Curtis Aycock is farming at Roscoe. But he is better known for his unusual capacity for reading Shakespeare and stripping cotton at the same time. He has two children, named Brutus and Caesar.

Maudean Bourns is presently on tour playing her calliope made from pipes fitted by Preston Tiner, her agent and manager.

Shirley Clancy is secretary to the L. P. Lorriland Tobacco Company president. She is kept busy on Saturday nights exposing her legs beneath the big regular-sized Old Gold package in the television show TWO FOR THE MONEY.

Billy Holmes is a master sergeant in the army. He is in charge of the Officers' Club gambling Casino and is noted for his efficient handling of the roulette wheel.

Robbie Jones is presently playing the bagpipes on the Southern School Assembly Programs. She was recently at Roosevelt. The students there called her back for three encores, which were Tschaikovsky's SYMPHONY NUMBER FIVE IN E MINOR, OPUS FOUR; VAYA CON DIOS, and I'VE GOT THE WAKE-UP AT 8:30, WASH YOUR EARS THEY'RE DIRTY, AND EAT YOUR OAT-MEAL AND HURRY BLUES.

Myra Klattenhoff has taken the place of Joe Friday on the famous program, DRAGNET. Steve Colleps, her husband, plays the part of Frank. They have two children named Facts and Hunch and a fire-breathing, maiden-devouring, over-acting, purple-spotted dragon named "Mam."

C. H. May is presently engaged in scientific research on his quest to invent a device which, when placed in the mouth of a student, will chew his gum for him and will answer most questions put to him by algebra and English teachers.

Tommy McCallister has just patented his Coupe de Ville tractor with hydramatic drive. His wife, Joan, recently presented him with their third son who they named Leon Nostradamus.

Delma McLeod is teaching school at Roosevelt. Some of her students are Caesar and Brutus Aycock, Nig and Renig Anderson, C. W. Andrews, Tommy McCallister, Jr., and Jeepie Wiley. Her husband, Jimmy Balios, is on a cruise with the Navy in the Indian Ocean.

Juanima Thomason, who was graduated from ACC six years ago, is singing religious songs and selling reducing pills over Station XERF, Del Rio, Texas, "Your Friendly Neighbor Along the Way."

Claudette Trotter is a nurse in the Lubbock Memorial Hospital where she was special attendant to Mr. Wood who recently popped a blood vessel.

David Wiley, who recently returned from the moon, is giving demonstrations on how to make moonbeams. He brought back with him the Holstein cow who is noted for jumping over that solar body.
